On behalf of the Articulation and Curriculum Committee I recommend approval of changes to the Social Service Worker Admission Requirements to be as follows, effective June 1, 2008.

All admitted students to the SSW Certificate Program will be required to take the CAT III English placement test. Those who do not receive a satisfactory score will be required to take and pass ENGL 190. Applicants with English 12, ENGL 050, ENGL 055 or satisfactory placement on the CAT III test will meet the prerequisites for SSW 109 and 112. For SSW 191, in addition to this English prerequisite, applicants must also supply:

- Two reference forms from an employer, volunteer supervisor, teacher or human service professional, attesting to the applicant's personal suitability for work in human services; a work/volunteer experience resume and a written statement describing career goals, special interests and reasons for seeking entrance to the program;

- Documentation of a minimum of 45 hours of satisfactory work or volunteer experience in a human service agency related to the training program within the last three years.
 - Completed criminal record search as per the Provincial Criminal Record Review Act. Students should be aware that a criminal record search will be required. Conditional acceptance may be granted to students whose Criminal Record Review is still in process and who have met all other program admission requirements. Certain crimes on the record would make practicum placement, graduation and subsequent employment impossible.

Applicants planning to apply to a school of Social Work (e.g. UNBC or UVic) or Child and Youth Care should consult with that university in order to take the appropriate university credit electives.

On behalf of the Articulation and Curriculum Committee I recommend approval of changes to the Social Service Worker Diploma Admission Requirements to be as follows, effective June 1, 2008.

- Successful completion of a certificate in a social service worker program or related certificate, with the completion of SSW 112 and SSW 113.
- Completed criminal record search as per the Provincial Criminal Record Review Act. Students should be aware that a criminal record search will be required. Conditional acceptance may be granted to students whose Criminal Record Review is still in process and who have met all other program admission requirements. Certain crimes on the record would make practicum placement, graduation and subsequent employment impossible. Students who graduate with the SSW certificate from NWCC in the year of their diploma application will not be required to complete an additional criminal record search.

Applicants planning to apply to a school of Social Work (e.g. UNBC or UVic) or Child and Youth Care should consult with that university in order to take the appropriate university credit electives.

A5 shall meet when Education Council deems necessary.
