At Coast Mountain College we offer our Fall 2020 courses and programs via distributed learning*.

Our experienced faculty will use tools such as web-conferencing, videos, social media, textbooks, print modules, e-mail, local contexts and experiential tasks to deliver your college experience. CMTN students can continue on their academic journey, even in the time of COVID-19.

Programs that have a required practicum, workshop or lab will be a blended delivery. This means that theory is taught online and practical components take place in one of our campus training labs or workshops and is regulated to meet health protocols.
